

NCN'EAN

ORGANIC WHISKY DISTILLERY

COASTAL CULINARY ADVENTURE: A SUGGESTED ITINERARY

Discover the hidden culinary gems of the west coast of Scotland with a food trail that takes in remote locations, sea views and dramatic landscapes.

	ITINERARY	STAY	EAT
DAY 1	Fort William ●	Lime tree hotel	Lime tree hotel ●
DAY 2	Drive to the Morvern peninsula and stop to enjoy lunch in Lochaline ● followed by an afternoon tour at Ncn'éan Distillery. ●	Achnacriche B&B on Drimnin	Lunch at the Whitehouse ● Dinner at Achnacriche ●
DAY 3	Catching the ferry from Lochaline to Fishnish, and head to Tobermory ● to enjoy the multi coloured street scape and wildlife tours.	Strongarbh House	Café fish ●
DAY 4	Catching the ferry from Tobermory to Kilchoan, take in the UK's most westerly point, before meandering down the Ardnamurchan peninsula to Strontian. ●	Kilcamb Lodge	Kilcamb Lodge ●

About Ncn'éan: Our distillery tour will include an introduction to Ncn'éan over tea or coffee with locally made artisan cupcakes followed by a behind the scenes tour of the distillery, and tastings of our evolving spirits. Afterwards, you are welcome to stay to enjoy some of the many walks around the estate, and to wander down to the Hayman's Art Gallery.

Estimated Cost: Based on two people, not including car hire: £1200

Transport: self-drive or chauffer driven (all ferries listed take cars). Our recommended chauffer partner is E-city Chauffer.

NCNEAN.COM
00441967421698

